MILK STRIKE THREATENED BY FARMERS IN NORTH O.

Dairymen Controlling 80 per cent of Pittsburg's Supply In Session

NEW YORK STRIKE IS STILL HANGING FIRE

Dairymen and Distributors Not Together—Price up In Wheeling

JEFFERSON, OHIO, OCT. 13.—A committee of eight directors of the Dairymen's Protective Association, which controls 80 per cent. of the milk supply of Pittsburg, met here today to complete plans for a strike which is to be put into effect Sunday, following refusel today by Pittsburg dealers to acceed to demands for higher prices for milk.

The association controls 40,000 cows in Ashtabula, Trumbull, Mahoning and Columbiana counties, in Ohio, and Crawford and Mercer counties in Pennsylvania. The new rate asked is $2.23 per hundred pounds in winter and $1.87 in summer, for milk testing 3.5 per cent butter fat. Members of the association say they have been getting all the way from $1.17 to $1.60. The new rate means about 20 cents a gallon in winter and 17 cents in summer.

The Dairymen's association has determined to make its cream into butter and feed the skimmed milk to stock rather than continue to sell at the old rate.

Lay In Your Sunday Water Supply Before Dept. Votes Town Dry

—And this is no poem, either

Water consumers will be compelled to lay in a water supply today to meet their needs Sunday. Promptly at 7 o'clock Sunday morning the supply will be turned off at the reservoir and will not be turned on during the day except in case of fire. All consumers are notified to draw such a supply today as will be needed over Sunday.

The water will be turned off in order to enable workmen to lay the new intake pipe which is considerably lower than the old. The contract for the work calls for its completion within 18 hours.

Safety and Service Director Ashman last night requested the especial care be taken to prevent the outbreak of fire as the fire department would be handicapped by lack of pressure and would be forced to depend on chemicals.

SUBMARINE SIGHTED OFF NANTUCKET BY NEUTRAL STEAMSHIP

NEW YORK, OCT. 13.—A German submarine identifying herself as such by wireless and stating that she was "from Newport," was sighted Tuesday more than 100 miles east of Nantucket lightship by a neutral ship now in port, it became known today. The submarine was moving in an easterly direction.

The submarine was sighted some distance from the neutral vessel which was signalled by wireless from the submersible asking her name and nationality. It was given and the question asked in turn:

"Who are you?"

"German submarine from Newport, good-bye," was the reply.

The assumption was that she was the U-53, responsible for the shipping raid of Sunday, and this report is the latest on her whereabouts. The U-53 was last sighted prior to that time by the Greek liner Patris Monday morning.

Submarine Sighted

BOSTON, OCT. 13.—A submarine of unidentified nationality was reported about 200 miles east of New York by the steamer Bovic in a wireless message today. The course of the submarine was not stated.

The Bovic, which is due in New York today or tomorrow from Manchester, England, reported sighting the submersible in latitude 40:17 north, longitude 68:77 west.

It was added that the submarine was "astern," but whether pursuing the Bovic or keeping an independent course was not stated. The figures of longitude, as received, are not correct, the degrees given being wrong, but it was stated the error probably was one of only a few degrees.

Foreign Cruiser Fleet Seen

A fleet of foreign cruisers and destroyers is off the American coast, according to Captain Linderoos of the Russian steamship Hesperus, which arrived here today from Huelva, Spain. To the pilot who boarded his vessel, Captain Linderoos reported that a "lot of cruisers and destroyers" passed his vessel off Cape Sable Wednesday, heading southwest. At the rate of speed he said, they must be off the coast by now.

The Hesperus' captain had not heard of the German submarine's raid Sunday, as there is no wireless equipment on his ship.

His report was coupled today with that of pilots who were in Massachusetts bay yesterday that three torpedo boat destroyers cruised off this coast all day. One pilot said he thot they were British vessels. Another said they were American. Ashore it was believed they were American destroyers on patrol duty.

A young man by the name of Shipley who is employed by Ramey was driving [illegible] across the bridge [illegible] a deeper cave way. The horses fell in the creek and the wagon, which was partially filled with corn, fell on them.

Shipley was thrown several feet when the wagon went thru, and was badly bruised about the body. The horses were terribly scratched and bruised. They fell a distance of ten feet before they struck the water.

JAMES OPENS DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN IN THIS COUNTY

Together With Ex-Mayor Rice of Canton, Ky. Sen. Starts Ball Rolling

RIDICULES ISSUES OF REP. CANDIDATE

Cites Hughes's Record as Gov. To Prove He is Type of Real Reactionary

The Sixth street theatre was crowded Friday afternoon when United States Senator Ollie James, of Kentucky, and ex-mayor James Rice, of Canton, opened the Democratic campaign in this county.

Both speakers were forceful and in no uncertain language scored the record of Charles E. Hughes as governor of New York and his present campaign policy of "knocking" the administration of Woodrow Wilson and refusing to tell what he would have done had he occupied the presidency.

They lauded Wilson for his diplomacy which "accomplished all that war could have accomplished" without the cost of life or interruption of commerce. Both speakers praised Senator Pomerene and Congressman Ashbrook and the administration of ex-governor Cox.

Weather Turned Republican.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather the rally was held in the Sixth Street theatre instead of the courthouse explanade as had first been planned. Shortly before 1:30 the theatre was filled and after a selection by the Imperial band, J. P. Forbes as chairman of the rally, introduced Ex-mayor James Rice, of Canton.

He at once took issue with the Re-

IT IS ELLEN'S UNLUCKY DAY

For little Ellen Hinig, 5-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hinig, of the Lahm terraces, Friday the Thirteenth was an unlucky day. Things just wouldn't go right for the little miss.

She sat on the edge of the chair and three times slid off and bumped her head.

She ate a glass of her mother's jelly and mother found it out. That was also unlucky for Ellen.

The climax came when she stepped into the huckster's egg basket and broke an even dozen for him. They were three cents each, and of course mother caught the little miss in the act. This adventure was also both unlucky and painful for Ellen, but what can one expect on Friday the Thirteenth!

Relief Corps Holds Meeting

The regular meeting of the W. R. C. was held last night in the G. A. R. hall and transacted the regular routine business. Arrangements were also made for a number of the Corps to attend the annual convention of the Fifteenth district held in Marietta on October 25. The district officers will be elected at this date.

A refreshment committee was also appointed to make arrangements to entertain the inspector who will shortly visit the Corps. On Friday evening, October 20, a number of the Corps will attend a meeting of the Sons of Veterans at which the latter body expects to elect officers and change the name of their organization. The regular meeting of the Relief Corps will be held the Friday following.

British Troops Gain Mile On West Front By Severe Fighting

LONDON, OCT. 13.—British troops advanced on the front, extending from Gueudecourt to Les Boeufs, about one and one-half miles in severe fighting north of the Somme last night, Gen. Haig reported this afternoon.

Gains were also made northwest of Gueudecourt and 150 prisoners were taken.

Fourteen British raiding parties entered enemy trenches in the regions of Ypres and Armentieres during the night, returning with prisoners and inflicting casualties.

Withdraw Big Guns.

The Germans have withdrawn their heavy guns from one and a half to five miles behind their Somme front, Anglo-French aviators have discovered on recent flights.

The withdrawal was ordered to save the pieces from capture.

SECTIONALISM IS SCORED BY WILSON IN INDIANAPOLIS

INDIANAPOLIS, OCT. 13.—President Wilson yesterday afternoon replied to the Republican charge that the Democratic party is a sectional party, with the statement that "any man who revives the issue of sectionalism in this country is unworthy of the confidence of the nation."

The president came to Indianapolis to address meetings of good roads advocates and farmers, review an automobile parade celebrating good roads days of the Indiana centennial and attend a non-partisan lunch of leading Indianians.

He was seen by crowds which packed the streets for blocks. In his first speech he spoke of the good done by highways in preventing sectionalism.

"Put Up Or Shut Up."

One of the most impressive periods of the president's address to the road enthusiasts was that it he did not believe [illegible] contributed to the progress of America he would not [illegible].

Another was that a congress that [illegible] for political effect was beneath contempt, while one that legislated for the welfare of the country was entitled to the praise of the country.

"There should be above the portals of [illegible] where [illegible] be held [illegible]," he said, "a motto to this: 'Put up or Shut up.'"

At both meetings the president's addresses were interrupted frequently by applause, and hand clapping marked his progress thru the streets.

Advises Against Groups.

"I wish that each one of us could [illegible] the difference between the way we have been trying to do these things and the way we ought to do things. We have been trying to do things by combination, by setting off one powerful group against another, by setting up groups in particular industries or spheres of our [illegible] which try to exclude all other groups by the power or by the method of their destroying competition. That is not the way to build it up into working elements.

"Instead of exclusive combinations I want to see universal co-operation. There are good signs in the air. I see the sign in America of the conception of [illegible] of the interest of each being the interest of all and the interest of each growing out of the interest of all.

"There is one field in which we are particularly [illegible] in respect of [illegible]. I mean the relations between capital and labor. Nothing can be for the benefit of capital that is not for the interest of labor, and nothing can be [illegible] of labor, which is not in the interest of capital. If [illegible] they must have human relationships with those who [illegible]. It is a lesson that has been exceedingly hard to learn, harder than any other lesson of co-operation in America.

Future Lies In Co-Operation.

[illegible] every day on this the [illegible] I pray God that their eyes may be opened and that they may see that the future of this country lies in their co-operation, their candid, cordial, and [illegible] in their co-operation, and that if they will once get together and plan in the same spirit the same things,

Fine Issue Of Scranton Paper

A copy of the semi-centennial edition of the Scranton, Pa., Republican, reached The Tribune office Friday evening.

It is a remarkably interesting paper containing supplements dealing with the various interests of the city, sketches of the lives of the founders of the town, and prominent men residing there at the present time, and many phases of the city's life.

The semi-centennial celebration was observed at Scranton last week. A member of the executive commitee, in charge of the program, etc., was John H. Brooks, who addressed the local Chamber of Commerce at a special meeting during the summer.

MORE TYPHOID FEVER

Thomas McPherson, of North Fifth street, was admitted to the city hospital Friday for medical treatment. He is suffering from typhoid fever. Dr. T. W. Lear is the attending physician.

RECOGNITION OF UNION IS REAL SOURCE OF CONFLICT

Gilders and Pottery Management Break over Wage Scale Dispute

PRESIDENT CARLING ISSUES STATEMENT

Says If Demand Came from Proper Place It Would Be Met In Time

Late last night no agreement had been reached between the management of the Pope-Gosser China works and the gilders, 21 in number, who were still striking in an effort to enforce the recognition of their union formed three months ago and their demand for a day rate of 50 cents an hour or piecework at the East Liverpool rates for similar patterns.

Russell Hall, secretary of the recently formed union, stated that the union was not affiliated with the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters and was not recognized by the United States Potters' Association, but the management of potteries in practically every city and instance recognized the decorators' union as a unit.

Union 3 Months Old.

He stated that the union was organized here three months or so ago with Clevor Wollam, as president, William Wise as vice-president and himself as secretary. Shortly before the death of Mr. Gosser the gilders placed their request for the recognition of the union and better wages as stated above in the hands of Bentley Pope, foreman of the decorating department. The matter was delayed by the death of Mr. Gosser and further the men say by the temporizing of the manage-

Boosters Meet In L.O.O.M. Hall

The L. O. O. M. craft held a boosters meeting last night in the lodge hall. Following a speech by Dr. J. D. Lower and shorter talks by a number of the members, a banquet was served. Three tables were needed to accomodate those present, estimated to number almost 100. Arrangements were also made for the winter membership campaign.

Nominations were received last night for the office of vice-dictator which was made vacant thru the resignation of Louis Hauer, who moved to California during the past week. On Friday night, October 27, the nominations will be balloted on and the successful nominee installed the Friday following.

On Monday night of the coming week the Moose Defenders of the Royal Order will organize their sonophone band. Sample instruments were received last night and indications were that the organization would prove a success.

THOTS TO THINK ABOUT

Man's promise is more valuable than gold when he makes good and "then some"—heaping the measure helps to market the goods.

Space is so great and time is so long that life's span of three score and ten seems but as a minute—but it's mighty full of joy if you get all that is in it.

Opportunity is ever on the wing and flits by man's habitation day and night, but opportunity is game and hard to tame and when it is grasped it is not always what man expected it to be.

There is good in each and some bad in all; the man who would preach must help them who fall.

He declared that the cry of "Wait till the war is over" indicated that they believed that after the President and the Democratic [illegible] the ship of state through the most troublous period ever known [illegible] had passed [illegible] the break [illegible] into the harbor they could not be trusted to drop anchor."

Progressives Not Back.

He referred to candidate Hughes as Charles "Evasion" Hughes and declared that his statement that there would be a united Republican party was a posture, that "there ain't no such animal." [illegible] the onward revision of the tariff [illegible] Teddy had nothing to do with it, he declared. "What is the remedy? What has Wilson done that it would undo and what has he done that they would do different and how?" These were some of the question launched in rapid fire by Race.

He laid hold on the Republican cry of panic and financial depression and analysed the cause of panics as control of the nation's finances by a few. He declared that the Federal reserve banking system would prevent financial depression and that the rural credits system enable the farmer to "capitalize his assets to meet his needs." He predicted that 90 percent of the farmers would vote for Wilson at the coming election.

In introducing Senator James Chairman Forbes declared that he was big enough for presidential timber.

[illegible] is a giant in stature. This was the first occasion he had spoken in central Ohio or far north of the Ohio river. He laughingly told of being quartered in jail and partaking of dinner as the guest of Sheriff Pharion and declared that he would rather be in jail in this city than at liberty in any other place."

He then took up Hughes' attack on Wilson's program of diplomacy. [illegible] declares Wilson should be [illegible] would have industrial supremacy, and says "Wait till the war is over." In this manner Senator James criticized Hughes' campaign [illegible]

MILK STRIKE

[illegible] the milk strike with the four leading distributors of this city apparently have been thwarted by the action of the board of directors of the league, who were awaiting today Mr. Dillon's resignation in compliance with [illegible] request formulated by the board last night.

As the result of this action, John J. Dillon, acting as [illegible] of the league, said [illegible] supply of milk which had been sent by farmers to the four distributors would be cut off today. Dealers who have signed the league agreement for six months are receiving their normal supply, Mr. Dillon said.

Mr. Dillon, who is state commissioner of foods and markets said the farmers are prepared to hold out indefinitely for the granting of their demand for a six months' contract at an advance of one cent a quart.

Unwritten Poetry.

Many people suppose that poetry is something to be found only in books, contained in lines of ten syllables with like endings; but wherever there is a sense of beauty, or power, or harmony, as in the motion of a wave of the sea, in the growth of a flower that "spreads its sweet leaves to the air, and dedicates its beauty to the sun"—there is poetry in its birth.—Hazlitt.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

City subscribers should insist on a receipt from the carrier.

Does yours bring joy to the breakfast table ?

North—East—South—West—women are solving the coffee problem.

Armies have solved it. "An army travels on its stomach" and of the army breakfast, ask any soldier what he would miss most.

Famous restaurants have solved it. They know that without the right coffee they would have failed.

One of the greatest American judges has said that unhappiness in the home commences with the first cup of poor coffee.

There is a coffee which brings a million men to breakfast "in a hurry"—a coffee that makes all these men eager to get to the breakfast table, slow to leave it.

Your grocer has this coffee—Arbuckles'. Today you can introduce its rich, full flavor in your home. Serve Arbuckles' for a week and notice how much more his breakfast means to him. Bring joy to your breakfast table.

Today there are whole towns where Arbuckles' is practically the only coffee used. In one State, alone, in a year, four pounds of Arbuckles' Coffee was used for every man, woman and child in the State—four times as many pounds of coffee as the population of the State!

BEHOLD, THE TAIL WAGS THE DOG!

Just how much of the present sharp rise in the price of practically all commodities that enter into the life of the average citizen is due to the European war, the future alone can determine. Doubtless the war has something to do with the ominous increase in the cost of living. That it has as much to do with it as is claimed is extremely doubtful.

But the increase is here and largely upsets the claim of general prosperity. By a strange turn of the wheel of fate it is now the Democrats who are taking credit for our so-called great "prosperity." In past years it has been the Republicans who have gobbled up all the glory in figures which always attends an era of commercial inflation.

We can well afford to let the Republican and Democratic campaign orators wrangle it out as to where credit is due, KNOWING THAT CAUSES BEYOND THE CONTROL OF EITHER, laws as inflexible as the law of gravitation, are at work PRODUCING CHANGES WHICH NEITHER THE REPUBLICAN NOR THE DEMOCRATIC PARTIES CAN ACCELERATE OR CHECK. The average man in the street and on the farm is gradually becoming wise to all this campaign bunk about this party or that producing or stifling "prosperity."

In the meantime, WHO IS PROSPEROUS? It is said on good authority that the younger Morgan has made—annexed would be a better word—more money since January 1, 1915 than the elder Morgan, J. Pierpont, Sr., his father, made in all his long and busy life. That is one answer to the question. J. Pierpont Morgan is prosperous; he has indeed annexed much coin of the realm. The Du Ponts and members of the Remington estate and stockholders in the Remington Co. and the munition makers in many factories scattered all over the East and North have made money since January 1, 1915.

Also, the parasites who live on the unearned increment, they who take their toll of economic rent and keep barnacle-like pace with the rising tide of population and industry, these have prospered, as is always the case, more than all others. In brief, a fraction of one percent, not to exceed one percent, of the population has really prospered for two years past. There is no question as to that.

But ask the salaried clerk who gets from $15 to $25 a week in communities like this and from $20 to $50 in the larger centers of population, if HE has prospered in the two years just past? ASK THE WAGE EARNER, THE UNKNOWN, UNSEEN COG IN OUR TREMENDOUS, MERCILESS INDUSTRIAL CHAIN IF HE IS PROSPEROUS. Ask the farmer to what extent he is sharing in the "prosperity" the campaign orator waxes so eloquent over. It is true the farmer is getting 75 cents for the fat hen he used to get two bits for. It is true wheat has been above the dollar mark most of the time of late. Pork and beef prices are up, permanently so, perhaps, as compared with the old era of five-cent live stock and fifty cent corn.

But good farmers tell us, intelligent, hard working farmers who know the game, that it is as hard as ever to get a six percent return on their investment. If the truth were known, it is extremely doubtful if the average farmer is making even five percent on his investment. It has become impossible for him to get help and if we mistake not the quality of all agricultural pursuits is bound to deteriorate if present tendencies keep on.

It can't help deteriorate because federal statistics show that FARM TENANTRY IS STEADILY AND REMORSELESSLY ON THE INCREASE, even in the newer and more fertile of farming states, like Iowa, Texas and Oklahoma, as well as in older communities east of the Mississippi. And we all know what land tenantry has done for every nation in the past.

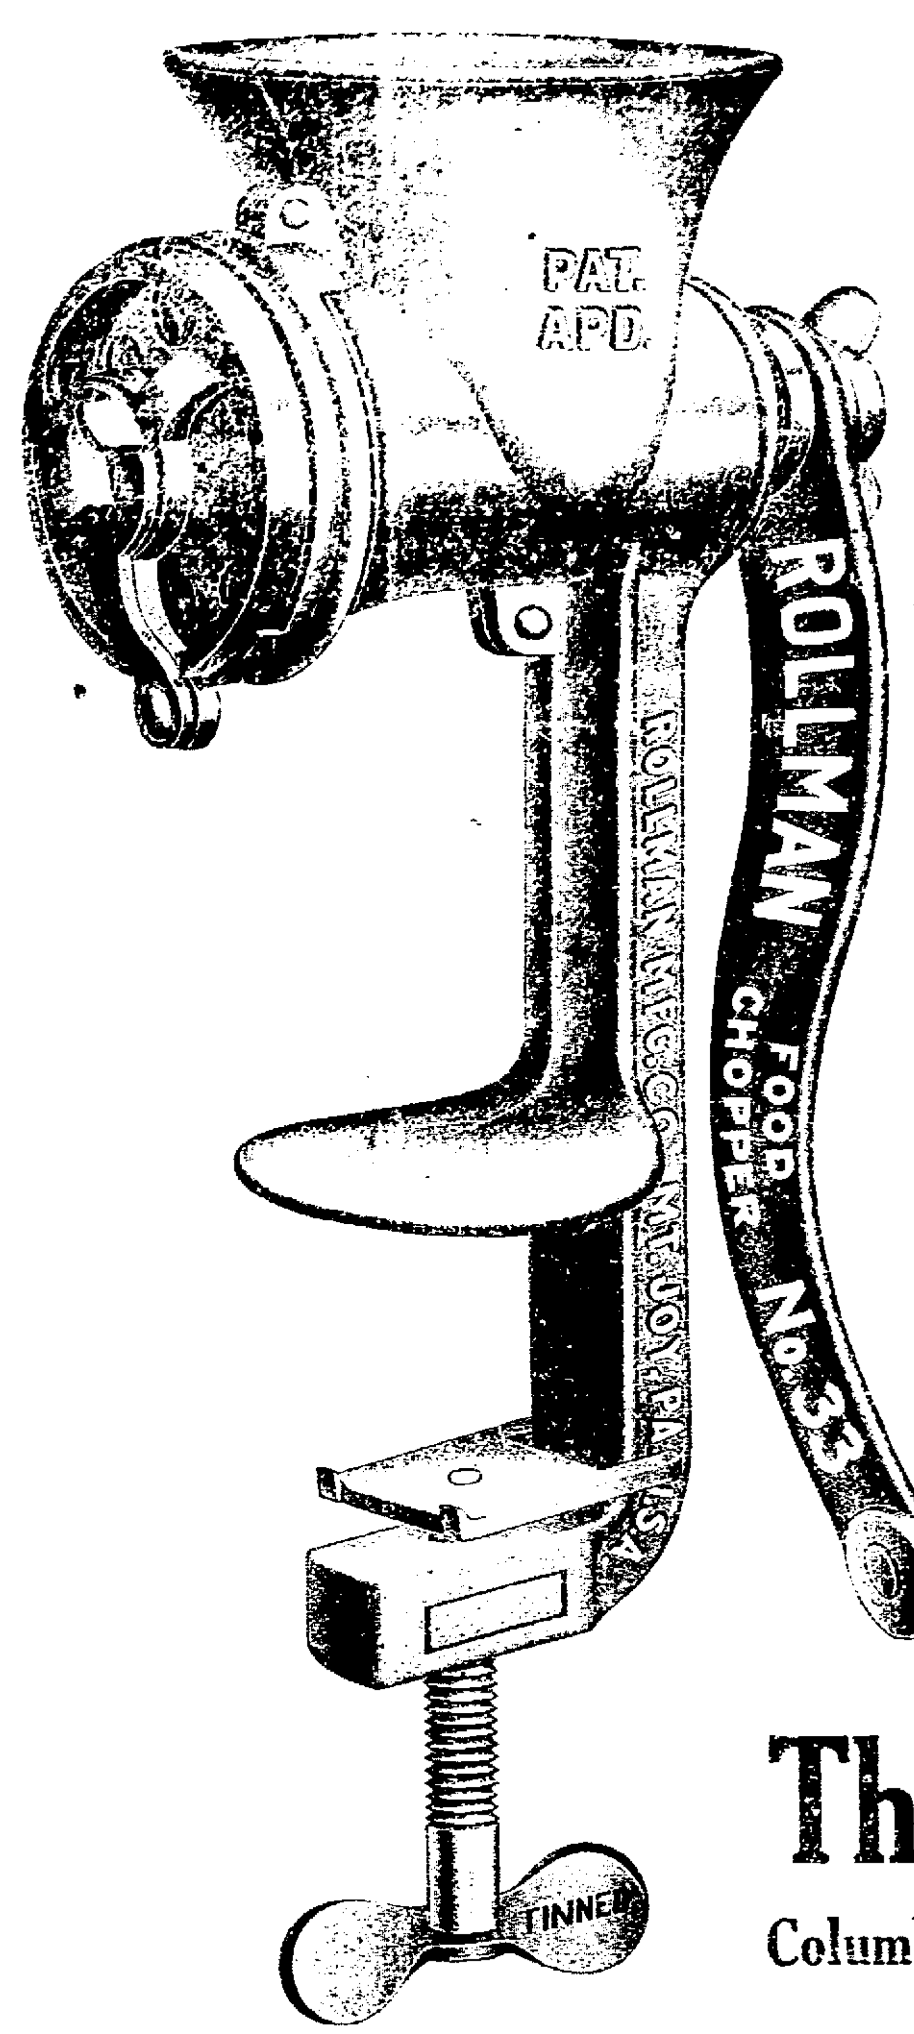

WHERE, THEN IS THE PROSPERITY OUR FRIEND THE CAMPAIGN ORATOR TELLS US ABOUT? It is admitted as to the one percent. But how about the other ninety-nine percent [illegible] enumerated? The man on the fixed salary isn't getting it. The wage earner isn't. The farmer isn't. In all probability the bulk of the money of the nation is pouring ceaselessly into the rat hole the economists call economic rent, just as it is [illegible] and to which [illegible] the [illegible] are of the so-called "prosperous" or "[illegible]" variety.

And our Democratic friends are only doing what Republicans would do under a reversal of positions. They are taking their [illegible] from the one percent. The kept papers of the Special Interests are whooping it up on the band wagon about [illegible] parallelled prosperity" that prospers no one except the beneficiaries of our system of indirect taxation and government [illegible] only.

For our own part, we can't help admiring THE ONE PERCENT. It is really bewildering to see how easy it is, after all, for the tail to wag the dog!

FALL DAYS
By Walt Mason

Oh, the frost is on the punkin, Mary Jane; and the farmer hauls the fodder in his wain; and the ancient clay-bank mare has her winter coat of hair, and the cows are bawling sadly in the rain. In the morning there's a nipping, eager breeze, and the edges of the brook begin to freeze; all the summer bloom is dead, and the pretty birds are sped, and I have rheumatic twinges in my knees. You have heard me in the summer, Mary Jane, you have heard me [illegible] and complain, wishing for some winter scene, telling how the blazing heat filled my person with a [illegible] pain. And [illegible], with a sad and raging sigh, I am thinking of the beauties of July, and I swear by August, too; then the skies are bright and blue, and a man can sit in comfort [illegible]. I'm opposed to Father Winter and his storms; I believe the kind of climate that is warm; when the nights are white with frost they [illegible] living's cost, and it's time the weather bureau knew reform.

MAN'S PLANS

He sat beside me by the fire, and chatted while I [illegible] my [illegible]. "I've toiled," he said, "for thirty years like Adam's team of brindled steers. And now that I have made my wad, I'll do some travelling abroad. I want to see this good old globe before I don a long white robe. My wife and I for years have planned a journey to the Holy Land; next year we'll see the storied things of which the pious psalmist sings. And if the war shall ever cease, we'll jog thru Italy and Greece, and see the Spaniard train his vine, and have a joy ride on the Rhine. I hope to climb the Alps and see the moonlight on the Zuyder Zee, and tread the ancient streets of Rome—but now, methinks, I must go home." He took his rainstick and his hat and vanished from my humble flat, to seek his home, which wasn't far; and on his way a motor car came up behind and climbed his frame, and he forever quit the game. Alas, poor chap! He "went abroad," and didn't need to take his wad.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

WHO SAVED THE COUNTRY FROM WAR?

Editor The Tribune:

Shortly after the beginning of the Civil War in 1861, Captain David Wilkes halted the British Steamer Trent on the way to England with Messers Mason and Slidell accredited to Great Britain and France, took them into custody and brot them back to this country and lodged them in prison. His act was approved and commended by Secretary of State, Seward. England immediately demanded their release and began preparation to enforce her demands.

Mr. Lincoln reviewed the situation, decided [illegible] was wrong, [illegible] confessed [illegible] wrong and [illegible] thus satisfy [illegible] the demands of the British Government and [illegible] a war [illegible]. Lincoln's [illegible] was one of [illegible] sense [illegible] courage [illegible] discredit to the nation but one that gave it prestige among the nations of the earth. [illegible] was one of the greatest [illegible] Civil War for the Union. The people of this country love and venerate Lincoln none the less for the frank confession and atonement [illegible] wrong.

After three years of assiduous labor in smuggling arms, misrepresentation and [illegible] clamor the big business, special privilege and professional jingo elements of the country succeeded in 1898 in rushing the country off its feet and out of its reason into the Spanish-American War but not until these elements were forced to perpetrate a great crime in the destruction of the United States battleships. The Maine, in Havana Harbor and accusing the Spanish authorities of the act. The more evidence accumulates on that event, the more evident it appears that the influences now at work to foment trouble to justify militarism were at work and conspiring them to attain their ends. "Remember the Maine" is a good watchword for all who are working to defeat the aims of the militarists. People then were not so wise to their schemes as they are now, or we should not have had any war or Philippine problem.

About a year ago last April a petty officer of the U. S. navy detailed for [illegible] shore duty in a Mexican port [illegible] with an American flag for protection was proceeding in the discharge of his duty when arrested by a subordinate of President Huerta then provisional president of Mexico. Huerta when notified of the fact ordered the release of the naval officer and apologized. That did not satisfy the American naval officer in command there, who demanded a salute of twenty-one guns in reparation of the alleged insult to the American flag. Huerta refused Mr. Wilson. When notified of the incident, Mr. Wilson sent Huerta an ultimatum which Huerta did not heed. Then Wilson sent a naval force to Vera Cruz which landed and seized the custom house after holding it for several months and having twenty or more marines and many more Mexicans killed in the operation retired from the city without getting the salute.

Last March a force of bandits said to be Mexicans and led by Pancho Villa crossed the boundary between United States and Mexico, raided the town of Columbus, Mexico and killed several Americans, was routed and pursued into Mexico. A great flame of indignation burst forth from the people who were interested in making trouble for the Mexicans and to appease the wrath of that bunch of trouble makers, President Wilson had a force of United States soldiers under General Pershing sent in to Mexico with orders to get Villa alive or dead. Pershing marched his force several miles into Mexico had several engagements with Villa bandits, killed Villa two or three times, mortally wounded him so many more, was shown several of his graves and marched back again. According to late reports Villa still lives, so Pershing didn't get him.

About a year ago last May or June the Lusitania, a large passenger steamship plying between New York and Liverpool was torpedoed and sunk without warning by a submarine. Over [illegible] and men, women and children went down with the vessel. The German government justified the act by claiming the vessel was loaded with war material and carried armament and it was necessary to terrorize shipping transacted in violation of the usages of war.

President Wilson at once put it up to the Kaiser to declare whether or not the German Government intended to conduct war in violation and regardless of neutral rights and lives of innocent people. The people of this country backed the president and the Kaiser was forced to recede from his policy of terrorism. But Wilson could not rest there. He next laid down the condition that lives of the persons who knowingly and voluntarily took passage on the ships carrying contraband of war should be safeguarded by the belligerent nations which affected Germany almost exclusively.

Now where in all these incidents of the Wilson Administration is there one instance of his attempt to conciliate or make amends for what he has at times asserted were wrongs and outrages committed by citizens of the United States against other citizens of other governments.

Where is there any comparison of any foregoing incidents of his administration with the conduct of Lincoln in the Trent Affair? Who has been clamoring for the intervention in Mexico? Who asked Wilson to force humiliation to its bitterest dregs upon the Mexicans by demanding abject submission to a peremptory demand by a naval officer without knowing all the facts and then proceed to shoot up her citizens and seize her property in

Old Folks Need "Cascarets" For Liver, Bowels

Get a 10-cent box now.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

The Benefits Of Borrowing

A well considered loan is often the strongest step a man takes in learning to accumulate.

Many of us work far harder to pay off a debt than we will simply to save money.

Money borrowed here to buy or build a home and thus save rent expense—or money borrowed to improve a farm or to make it more productive, is a beneficial borrowing.

We make such loans and in this way have helped thousands of people to greater wealth, to greater earning power, to the satisfaction of home ownership.

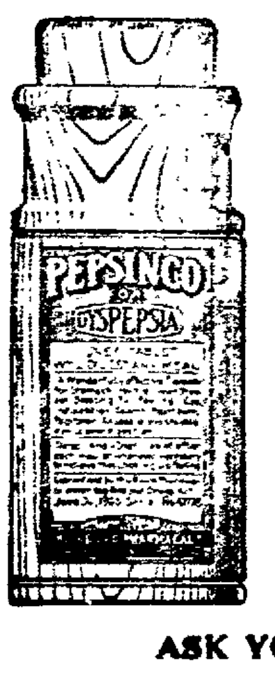

And these loans constitute the safest possible investment for the money of our savings depositors.

Loans closed promptly.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Try this! Brush Sage Tea and Sulphur Compound thru your hair, taking one strand at a time.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur no one can tell because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, tho, at home is mussy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this thru your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, tho no disgrace, is a sign of old age and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and not a medicine. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

ADELE HASSON IN "THE ONLY GIRL."

The following is what the Pittsburg Press said about "The Only Girl," which is playing here this week. The same company comes to the 6th St. Theatre next Wednesday. Seat sale starts this morning, at 9 a. m. at theatre. Telephone your reservation.

Pittsburgers were just as enthusiastic over "The Only Girl," which opened a week's engagement at the Alvin last night as if it had not been a star feature of three previous theatrical seasons. It is musical comedy literally, and is one of the most tuneful and delightful of all the musical comedy masterpieces that Victor Herbert has turned his hand to. Henry Blossom shares in the honors as author of the book and lyrics. Pittsburgers who have faithfully followed the fortunes of the "Girl" since her first appearance in Pittsburg surely missed Thurston Hall, the former Kim of the piece, and they must have regretted the absence of the sweet and girlish Wilda Bennett who played Ruth Wilson, the composer. These parts are taken this season by E. A. Turner and Laura Arnold. Saunders, the valet, is done acceptably by Alfred Fisher. Adele Hasson is one of two new brides in the cast, and her appearance in the cast adds greatly to the delight ... the play. As the wife of Bunker she scores in three departments, acting, singing and dancing. EDISON WEEK OCTOBER 16-21

Vast Industries Based on Edison Inventions to Observe Week in Honor of Great Inventor.

$1,000 OPEN PRIZE CONTEST.

More than 1,000,000 people are employed in the various industries founded by Thomas A. Edison. In the United States alone over 600,000 men and women earn their livelihood in vocations created by Edison's genius. For a number of years a group of these industries has observed October 21st the anniversary of Mr. Edison's invention of the electric light. This year the week of October 16th-21st will be observed throut the United States and Canada as Edison Week.

Among the many things planned for the celebration of Edison Week is a $1,000 Prize Contest arranged by associates of the inventor. This contest had its origin in a remark which Mr. Edison made last spring to one of his assistants.

Several years ago, having completed his work on the storage battery, Mr. Edison decided that he would try to develop a means of recording and reproducing sound which would make the reproduction indistinguishable from the original. It proved to be the longest and most costly research work ever undertaken by Mr. Edison. He spent nearly $3,000,000 in experiments alone, and these experiments were not completed until March of this year. When the new invention and new record, were perfected, Mr. Edison said, "Now we shall find out what we have. Rent Carnegie Hall, New York City, and get Madame Rappold of the Metropolitan Opera to go over there. Have her stand beside the new phonograph and sing in actual comparison with our records of her voice. Invite the music critics and the music lovers of New York City. Get the most critical audience you can possibly get. If I have succeeded in doing what I set out to do, they won't be able to tell Madame Rappold's voice from the phonograph's reproduction of her voice."

The test was made on April 28th before an audience of 2,500 people, and just as Mr. Edison had prophesied, it proved impossible to distinguish Madame Rappold's voice from Edison's reproduction of it. Next day the New York papers were enthusiastic in their praise of Edison's new invention.

Similar tests were made with other artists in Boston, Philadelphia and elsewhere, and with the same result. When I complete an invention I like to know what the man in the street thinks of it and how he thinks it is going to benefit him."

Mr. Edison's associates remembering this remark decided to get the opinions of non-expert and non-technical people. Without Mr. Edison's knowledge they arranged thru Stevenson Bros., of this city, and merchants of several other cities, to place a number of these new instruments in various homes and get the untechnical opinions of typical American families.

To stimulate interest in the matter $1,000 in prizes are offered for the best opinions. This contest occurs during Edison Week. The first prize is $500, the second $200, and the third $100. Then there is a Consolation Contest with prizes aggregating $200. It is proposed to print the prize winning opinions in a booklet and present it to Mr. Edison as a souvenir of Edison Week. Opinions which do not win prizes, but which are nevertheless considered worthy of publication, will be purchased at 10 cents per word. No opinion is to exceed 200 words in length. Literary excellence will not be considered. Professional writers and all persons connected with the phonograph industry are barred from the competition, as it is desired to obtain only untechnical opinions.

Returning to the Grind.

Going back to work again after a three weeks' vacation is almost as pleasant as having seven teeth extracted.

We put it up to Hundreds of Dentists

Long before SENRECO was offered to you we submitted it to hundreds of dentists, requesting that they put it to every test. Told them that we believed Senreco to be an unusually good dentifrice, especially as to its cleansing qualities and its remedial action on sore, soft, bleeding gums; in the treatment of Pyorrhea, etc. Submitted the formula and asked them their opinion. They tested Senreco from every angle; some going even so far as to make a chemical analysis—

And They Voted Yes

With practically one accord—said:

"Senreco appeals to me more than any dentifrice I have ever seen." "I cannot say too much for Senreco. It's one of the best I have used." "I can recommend Senreco as the best." "Makes the teeth glisten and is free from injurious ingredients, including pumice and grit." "I am indeed glad to get a tooth paste that does the work." "Congratulate you on formulating a dentifrice that gives one a new idea of mouth cleanliness, etc." (These quotations are from the dentists' reports. Originals on file at our office.)

With such endorsements from the men who know, why not go to your dealer today and get a tube of SENRECO—25c. Keep your teeth REALLY CLEAN, and protect yourself against Pyorrhea and decay.

A copy of the folder, "The Most General Disease in the World" together with a liberal trial size tube of SENRECO will be mailed you for 4c in stamps. The Sentonel Remedies Co., Inc. Dept. 8, Masonic Temple, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Gildre's Union

ment. The issue was forced Thursday and upon the refusal of the management to accede to the demands of the gilders, a strike was declared.

President J. P. Carling stated to The Tribune last night that the reason that the demands of the gilders had not been met was "the fact that the gilders were not recognized as a union by any of our pottery manufacturers." He further stated that "if our men were to place their demands in the proper source, which is The National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, there isn't any doubt but that their demands would have been accepted at the proper time."

An officer of the gilders' union stated to The Tribune last night that the gilders had formerly been associated in the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters but withdrew because the Brotherhood did not properly care for the interests of the gilders. He further intimated that the Pope-Gosser management had made attempts to settle with individual strikers and another of the strikers stated that on certain patterns the management had offered to pay the East Liverpool scale.

From the statements of the strikers and Mr. Carling it would appear that the real issue involved is the recognition of the gilders' union. The strikers declared last night that they would not return to work until their demands had been met and that this meant the recognition of the union as well as better day and scale wages. They also intimated that they considered a satisfactory adjustment to be practically certain.

Mr. Carling's Statement.

The position of the Pope-Gosser management is indicated by the following statement from Mr. J. P. Carling, president of the company:

"The gilders of the Pope-Gosser

China Company went on strike Thursday because their demands for recognition as a union were not acceded to by the officers of the company.

"The fact that the gilders are not recognized as a union by any of our pottery manufacturers is the reason that the demands were not met. If our men were to place their demands in the proper source, which is The National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, with whom the pottery owners have an agreement on such questions there isn't any doubt but that their demands would have been accepted at the proper time. We are paying the usual scale of prices that other potteries are paying for a similar class of work, otherwise we would not have been able to have held our organization together.

"The present management feels keenly the attitude taken by the men at this time, following so closely the loss of C. F. Gosser as president of the concern. But they still show confidence in humanity and believe when their loyal employes who have been with them so many years realize the impossible situation that they have brot about, they will reconsider their demands, at this time.

J. P. CARLING."

Pres. Pope Gosser China Co

Only One Dept. Affected.

Only the men in the decorating department are effected by the strike and other departments are operating as usual. Work on the finer artware and pattern china is stopped and the company will have to depend on stock to fill the demand for this class of ware.

Each day the gilders are meeting and keeping close tab on developments. They will make no attempt to interfere with work in the other departments and no trouble is anticipated.

$1,000 IN PRIZES

WE want your opinion of the New Edison, the instrument which the New York Globe calls, "the phonograph with a soul."

Thomas A. Edison has spent over $2,000,000 in research work in acoustics and chemistry to produce this wonderful new instrument.

The music critics of more than two hundred of America's leading newspapers have heard this instrument in direct comparison with living singers and instrumentalists, and admit that their trained ears are unable to distinguish the original music from Edison's Re-Creation of it by means of this wonderful new invention.

wants your opinion

He has the opinions of the music critics, but he made the New Edison for the American home, and he wants your opinion. Accordingly the Edison Company has arranged a prize contest for the best opinions about the New Edison written by people who hear it in their homes.

$500 is to be paid for the best opinion.
$200 for the second.
$100 for the third.

In addition, there is a Consolation Contest in which the prizes aggregate $200. Opinions which do not win prizes, but which nevertheless are considered suitable for publication, will be purchased at 10 cents per word. No opinion should exceed 200 words.

We make it possible for you to compete for a prize even though you do not own one of these wonderful new instruments

We have set aside a number of specially tested New Edisons. These instruments will be placed in homes in this city on three days' absolutely free trial.

During this trial you and your family can listen to Mr. Edison's new invention and form an opinion of it, just as well as if you owned the instrument.

There is absolutely no obligation to buy. There is no obligation except that you take good care of the beautiful instrument and the wonderful Re-Creations of music which will be sent with it.

Next week is Edison Week, and this offer is limited strictly to Edison Week.

Come to Our Store Monday Morning and enter the Edison Week Free Trial Prize Contest before it is too late. Remember that the number of instruments available for these free trials is limited, and it will necessarily have to be a case of first come, first served.

Professional Writers Barred From the Contest

Professional writers and members of the phonograph trade are barred from this prize contest. Mr. Edison does not want finely written opinions. He wants opinions that come right from the heart and that are couched in unstudied language. An opinion may be misspelled and ungrammatical, and still win a prize. Literary embellishments are not desired.

The conditions of the contest are perfectly simple. They can be explained to you in a minute if you will call at our store.

DOWN HALF MILE HILL IN A BARREL

Man Inside Thought It Was Worse Than Being Shot.

MADE INVOLUNTARY JOURNEY.

When Witness to Gamblers' Fight Crawled Into Flour Holder For Safety He Did Not Know It Would Be Sent With Himself Whirling Down a Steep Decline.

IN 1884 Jess Fry was railroad and express agent at a new station, which was then the end of the line of the Southern Pacific building through the southwestern part of Texas. He had a strange experience on a monthly pay day. Every workingman in camp had money. Most of them had the gambling fever and leeches from all over the west were on hand to get their share of the dinero. On this particular day the most notorious of the professional gamblers in camp was Ike Winters, who had come over from Tombstone, Ariz. Along in the evening Winters and a few others started a poker game in a tent which was pitched just at the edge of a steep hill, says Field and Farm.

When Fry got through with his duties as agent he went up to take a look at the game. He was invited to take a hand and that being about the only way to pass away the time he sat in. The other players were sitting upon empty powder kegs and boxes, and he went to the commissary tent near by and got an empty flour barrel which he used for a seat.

The game progressed without incident for an hour or two, and then a great rumpus broke out. There were five or six players besides Winters. Among them was a half breed Mexican with a reputation as a killer.

Then the Light Went Out.

He, like Winters, was a professional gambler. Winters was unacquainted with the Mexican and took him to be a foreman of a construction gang, probably. Had he known his desperate character, he would very probably not have been so quick to precipitate the trouble. The pot was a large one. The half breed and Winters caught match hands. Both men claimed the pot. Each started to reach for it at the same instant, drawing a gun with the right hand and each firing simultaneously. That was only the beginning of the melee. The light was knocked out and in the darkness the flash of pistols could be seen.

WHY NOT CRAWL INTO THE BARREL?

The first thought that occurred to Fry was that he must seek some place of safety. Why not crawl into the empty flour barrel? He got in all right and was lying there trembling when one of the gamblers gave it a kick to get it out of his way and sent it beneath the flap of the tent and away the barrel went, rolling down that steep hill, with Fry inside. The hill was nearly half a mile long and the barrel went tumbling down, bumping over stones and crashing through the desert vegetation toward the end of the declivity it was going at a terrific speed.

Could Not Get Out.

The agent suffered untold agony during that terrible ride. He could not get out and was rolled over and over at the rate of a hundred times a second, he thought. It happened that there were no nails protruding through the barrel. Had there been he would have been punctured full of holes.

The barrel finally came to a standstill and Fry crawled out. He was bruised all over, but managed to pull himself up the steep hill to the railroad station. He had escaped from the shooting, but felt that he would probably have fared better had he remained there. The shooting affray resulted in the killing of Winters, the half breed Mexican and another gambler.

the industry of America will go forward by leaps and bounds, such as we have never yet conceived.

"Sometimes it is necessary in order to arrest attention to pull men up with a round turn and say 'Stop, look, listen!' because presently, if you don't the great forces of society will correct the things that have gone wrong. Society is the jury. The parties are not going to settle. The nation is going to settle and I am counsel for the nation."
